Kate Pearson

Kate (aka Cornishbirdinthesticks!) studied Graphic Design at Falmouth School of Art. An early career working in an accounts office led to a chance meeting and subsequent commission to design an iconic image for Falmouth Mission to Seafarers.

From there a creative zest was reborn and she started producing imagery inspired by her love of Cornish and Coastal themes. She shares her time designing, running her own shop in Redruth as well as looking after her menagerie of 13 dogs.
